UNION CONVENTIONS, WESTCHESTER COUNTY.—The delegates to the Union Convention, called to nominate candidates for the several county offices to be voted at the approaching State election assembled at the Court-House, White Plains, yesterday. Mr. James R. Marvin, of Morrisania, was called to the chair; and Messrs. D. H. Platt, of Ossining, and Charles E. Densbury, of Yonkers, were appointed secretaries.

Mr. Densbury, of Yonkers, was appointed secretary of the Committee to instruct the County Committees in the propriety of making a new ratio of representation by delegates in the County and District Conventions, in pursuance of which the towns shall hereafter be represented. After some discussion of the subject, the resolution was adopted.

A resolution was also adopted in favor of appointing a County Committee to consist of two members from each Assembly District, to be appointed by the Chair, or chairman of the Convention acting in concert with the same.

Mr. Nelson of Cortland then moved to proceed with the nomination of county officers, and proposed for County Judge the present incumbent, the Hon. Wm. H. Robertson, whose name elicited great applause.

Mr. Williams of Morrisania, after a few remarks, putting forth the great popularity and legal ability of Mr. Robertson, moved that his name be used by the Copperhead Convention a few days before, proposed him as a candidate for County Judge.

Mr. Hopper of Harrison rose to reply to the proposal of Mr. Williams. He wished the Convention to understand that Judge Hart went with his friends into the Democratic Convention only a week before, as one in league with Gov. Seymour, prepared to support the Democratic party in all its measures, and, only on being disappointed in his efforts, he had reluctantly withdrawn his name to be brought before this Convention and asked for nomination. It had been intimated by Mr. Williams that the legal ability of Judge Hart would be important in case of riots in Westchester County. For Mr. (Hopper's) part, he felt sure that no one who knew Judge Robertson—and every living man in the county knew him well—could doubt that he was the man to protect them; and, further, no man whom that Convention could nominate.

A friend of Eastchester remarked that if Judge Hart was such a War Democrat as he had been represented to be by the gentleman who had proposed his name, it was certainly very strange that he had not sought the company of well-known War Democrats at that moment. He was set down by those who looked upon him as a rank Copperhead. Mr. Hopper closed by moving that Wm. H. Robertson be nominated by the Convention.

Mr. J. C. Clark, of White Plains, rose to express his desire that any one should have introduced the name of Robert S. Hart in that convention. Mr. (C.) had nothing to say of Judge Hart's legal abilities; but there was one thing he was sure of—if the members of the Convention endorsed his name, the party would be sunk so low that no power on earth could ever raise it again. Judge Hart had been represented as a War Democrat, and that moment. He was set down by those who looked upon him as a rank Copperhead. Mr. Hopper closed by moving that Wm. H. Robertson be nominated by the Convention.

Mr. Williams finally withdrew the name of Judge Hart, and the nomination of Judge Robertson was made unanimous.

E. F. Shonnard then proposed the name of the Hon. James R. Whitling, of Westchester, who, as Judge Whiting had been nominated to say that before the Convention proceeded to give the proposed nomination, he desired to know who he was, what he was, what his political condition, as well as his conduct as a citizen. Mr. Booth played the piece as nearly as practicable to the original version, and accordingly gave Mr. L. Barrett a chance, which he improved to make a great hit in it as Don Caesar. Last night, for Mr. Booth's benefit, both Ray Bias and Don Ceser de Baan were present, and Ray Bias and Mr. Booth in the former, and Mr. Booth in the latter. The performance was of unusual interest, and will be repeated to-night and to-morrow night. Mr. Booth's engagement closes with this week. He will be followed by Mr. J. S. Clark. We regret to learn that Mr. Barrett is to leave the Winter Garden and go to New Orleans. He will make his appearance in New York, and probably nowhere else.

This object we have accomplished, and now we have to announce that we have succeeded in the nomination of Wm. H. Robertson.

The nomination of Mr. Whiting was then unanimously made unanimous.

Mrs. Quincy Fowler of Greenburgh was nominated by acclamation for Superintendent of the Poor.

Mrs. Stephen G. M. Knauthorne was nominated for Sheriff, and Mr. James Williamson of Lewisboro for Justice of the Session.

The Chair then appointed the following-named gentlemen to act with himself as a County Committee for the ensuing year: 1st Assembly District, J. H. Scribner and Henry W. Mall; 2d Assembly District, D. H. Chapman and Weston Ferris; 3d, 4th, 5th, and 6th Districts, Thomas and Nelson Olson; 7th, 8th, and 9th Districts, T. S. and J. A. Johnson; 10th, 11th, and 12th Districts, D. J. and W. H. Robertson; 13th, 14th, and 15th Districts, Wm. H. Robertson; 16th, 17th, and 18th Districts, Wm. H.
